

WEEK OF MARCH 30, 2025

From Woody: As Lent moves along it is time to think about our One Great Hour of Sharing offering which we will collect on Palm Sunday. It is a church wide offering among several denominations that gives us the opportunity to help people around the world. Our offering goes to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance which is present whenever there are large scale disasters. There is the Presbyterian Hunger Program which is present in efforts to feed hungry people in cities and towns around the country. And the third fund that gets funds is one which helps people find ways to support their families and is titled the Self-Development of People. When it often seems that the problems in our world are beyond our ability to do much about them, this offering brings us all together as the church universal to do what Jesus talked about in his last parable, found in Matthew 25. We can do something to feed the hungry and help the poor and downtrodden when we come together as Christians. We will have more information about this offering next Sunday and the kids who were in church yesterday are off to a great start with the banks they received. Hope that they will bring them back on Palm Sunday and that we feel good that we can do something to help those struggling both here and around the world. Thank you all in advance. We often feel that these terrible things that are hurting people around the country and around the world are beyond our hope. One Great Hour of Sharing is our chance to reach out to those in difficult situations around the world.

Quilt Raffle During Lent: During Lent, we will be raffling off 2 beautiful handmade quilts—made and donated by Carolyn Ferguson-Wilson. One is purple and shades of green, the other is “Comfort of the Psalms” with comforting phrases from the Psalms scattered throughout. Cost is $5 for 1 ticket and $10 for 3 tickets. They will be on display after church and tickets can be purchased then. Or if you can’t get to church but would like to participate, you can send a check made out to Community Church of New Boston—to Barbara Woodland, 133 Hooper Hill Road, New Boston. Indicate which quilt you want your ticket(s) to go to, and Barbara will fill out and deposit your tickets. Questions? barbarawoodland@comcast.net

New Members: We would love to have new members join our church family. Please see Woody or call him at 603-487-3643 if you are interested or would like to learn more.
